

CANDIDATE FOR SECRETARY

Jann Fountain
Duncan Parnell
Raleigh, NC

Biography

Jann Fountain began her career in Roanoke, VA, working for an electrical contractor. After moving to south Florida, Jann worked for D. Garrett Construction in Naples, FL, in the administration field. In 1984, Jann accepted a position with a large subcontractor, Acousti Engineering. Acousti Engineering has 17 offices located in Florida and North Carolina. Acousti transferred Jann to its Raleigh office in 1997. In 1999, Jann was offered a position with a records management company. With new technology coming, Jann felt it was the right time for her to move into the digital world and took a position with a full service document management company specializing in the healthcare industry with major hospitals in North Carolina and South Carolina. Duncan Parnell offered her a business development position specializing in wide format document management and printing within the construction industry. Duncan Parnell is headquartered in Charlotte, NC, with 14 offices located throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, and Atlanta. Duncan Parnell has been in business since 1947.

Jann is a past president of the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) and vice president and then president of the Triangle Chapter of ARMA International. She brings years of experience within the construction industry and has a deep understanding of the needs of architects, engineers, and contractors.

Candidacy Statement

It's an exciting opportunity to take part of revitalizing the NC Chapter of CMAA. The Leadership Meeting was a huge success with several people enthusiastic about getting the chapter running again. The secretary position is an important part of any organization and I feel confident that my participation would be beneficial to the chapter. Thank you and I look forward to working with everyone on this venture.
